County aforesaid, personally appeared, Sam McButtloch, to me well known,

That he was a soldier and actually rendered military service in the Texas Army subsequent to the Declaration of Texas In-

That he entered such service under Col Geo M. Collinsworth on or about the day of September 1835, as a private, and received a severe wound in a battle against the enemy at Goliad, in the right shoulder, from the effects of which he has not finally recovered to the present day, nor does he now ever expect to - That being so disabled from active service he was taken home and there remained bed-ridden for more than six months - owing to which he received no discharge, Monthly Pay or County Land for such service,

He received Pension Bonds under the law of 1874, having fully established his claim, which is on file in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts at Austin more than one living and Credible witness, in Texas County who can by affidavit support his statements herein made for the purpose of obtaining the Donation

1851 - Born in D.C. and is now over
